presents a free workshop series on

Voters' Rights, Conducting Voter Registration, and Election Rules for Nonprofits and 501(c)3s

AALDEF is providing a series of free legal trainings in multiple cities to assist Asian American community-based organizations to prepare for summer voter registration drives and the fall Presidential Elections. Attorneys will provide legal information under local, state, and federal laws for community groups about:

- legal responsibilities in conducting voter registration drives
- legal rules regarding electoral and voter education activities for 501(c)(3)s
- voters' rights on Election Day regarding interpreters, provisional ballots, and remedies to problems.
